

1. UNIVERSITY ACCESS TO LOCAL FARMERS, COMMUNITY AND FOOD PRODUCERS

The University of Poonch Rawalakot has regularly followed up with the trained farmers and offered them plant stocks, and on farm technical assistance to adapt the farming of different crops on commercial basis, and also soil fertility, water and milk tests. The Faculty of agriculture, outreach program mainly focus to provide free technical assistance to framers, regarding the selection of seed, appropriate use of fertilizers, control of diseases on their door steps so that they can enhance their crop productivity.

Improved production of maize and wheat crops of local food producers