

Career Counseling and Demonstration at Local Schools and Colleges

University of Poonch Rawalakot often engages in various outreach activities to serve local community and contribute to the development of the region through its educational outreach activities beyond the campus. The University of Poonch Rawalakot organizes community service programs where students and faculty engage with local communities to address their needs. University of Poonch Rawalakot also offering professional / technical education and skill development and job oriented programs can help individuals in the surrounding areas acquire new skills and improve their employability.

Collaborating with local schools to provide tutoring, mentorship, and educational resources to school students as they could be an effective way to improve the quality of education in the region.

Workshops and seminars: University of Poonch Rawalakot organizes seminars on various subjects that are open to the public. These events provide a platform to share knowledge and expertise with a broader audience. As well as University of Poonch is partnering with local businesses for internships and training programs helps students gain practical experience and improve their employability. University of Poonch organized different cultural and art events to help preserving and promoting the local culture and provide a platform for artists and performers in the community.

1. Career counseling Seminar at Read Foundation School and College, Rawalakot and Government Boys Post Graduate College, Bagh

The Department of Computer Sciences and IT organized different highly informative seminars at Read Foundation School and College, on 10 August 2022, and Government Boys Post graduate college Bagh Azad Kashmir, offering valuable career counseling to aspiring students. These event aimed to empower young minds with insights into the dynamic field of computer science and IT, shedding light on the myriad of opportunities and career paths within the industry. With engaging presentations, expert speakers, and interactive sessions, these seminars provided students with a clearer understanding of the educational pathways and professional prospects available to them, equipping them with the knowledge and guidance needed to make well-informed decisions about their future in the world of technology. This initiative was a significant step in bridging the gap between education and practical career choices, ensuring that the students are well-prepared to embark on successful and fulfilling careers in the field of computer sciences and IT.

The Department of Computer Sciences and IT organized different highly informative seminars at Read Foundation School and College, and government Boys Post graduate college Bagh, AJ&K.

2. Demonstration on Importance of Female Education and Participation at Government Girls Degree College Hajira

The University of Poonch Rawalakot recently organized a compelling demonstration at the Government Girls Degree College Hajira, emphasizing the profound importance of female education and active participation. This event served as a dynamic platform to address the significance of empowering young women through education, encouraging them to actively engage in academic pursuits and broader societal involvement. Dr. Umer Sheikh and Lecturer Sadaf Sajid of Department of Entomology, UPR delivered the lectures. The demonstration not only aimed to inspire the girls at the college but also fostered a supportive environment that promotes and values the education and participation of females.

Dr. Umer Sheikh and Lecturer Sadaf Sajid of Department of Entomology, UPR along with the participants of Government Girls Degree College Hajira