

Transgender Community Policy and Protection Information

Currently, the University of Poonch Rawalakot, AJK, does not have any academic or non-academic staff or students who identify as part of the transgender community. Nevertheless, we have proactively implemented a policy in support of the transgender community. This policy is designed to safeguard their rights, address reported cases, and fairly adjudicate any complaints brought to our attention.

Inclusion of All Genders: Our application process includes specific options and quotas for genders beyond the traditional male and female categories, ensuring inclusivity and equal opportunity for all applicants.
