

Capacity Building of Local Producers through Training Workshop at University of Poonch, Rawalakot

The University of Poonch, Rawalakot, organized a training workshop aimed at enhancing the capacities of local producers. The primary objective was to equip them with modern techniques, knowledge, and skills to improve the quality and competitiveness of their products.

Participation of local producers (both male & females), faculty members, students in training workshop organized by Faculty of Agriculture

Availability and distribution of fruit plant stocks to local producers and farmers; M. Zaheer, Farm manager of University, is briefing local producers fruit trees